

Collin Welker

Objective

Seeking a software development position in a professional work environment

Education

December 2014 - Associates Degree of Computer Science from Weber State University

December 2015 – Bachelor of Computer Science from Weber State University with 3.80 GPA

Scholarships including: Karen Woodbury Technologies, College of Applied Science, and WSU COAST Academic Waiver

Skills

Programming

- JavaScript - Angular
- HTML/CSS/XML/JSON
- Java
- C and C++
- Assembly

Scripting/Logic

- Python
- Bash
- Perl
- Prolog (logical)

Database

- Oracle SQL, PL/SQL
- T/SQL
- Mongo DB

Experience developing Android native apps and Angular web apps. Have exposure to Windows, OS X, and Linux.

Excellent with computers and technology, strong in working well with people while maintaining a positive attitude, and able to learn new skills quickly.

Relevant Work Experience

Web Development Intern for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

May 2015 – Aug. 2015

- Gained experience shadowing a mentor on application planning, design, and development/coding
- Worked in Education portfolio on a web based mobile first Application for parents and teachers
- Performed numerous database queries

Application Services Student Intern for Weber State University

May 2014 – May 2015

- Developed knowledge of, and experience in ServiceNow IT service management software
- Created electronic forms and used Java to validate forms in the ServiceNow software
- Used Git and Banner's WebTailor software

Office Manager Assistant for Lynn Woodward Electric LLC.

September 2007 – January 2015

- Specialized in T&M Billing Manager program to create invoices for customers
- Trained employees of specialized equipment
- Completed and managed inventory of warehouse stock